In today's tough economic environment, keeping abreast of legal developments relating to the workplace can be a daunting task. But it has never been more essential as organisations have to take difficult decisions concerning lay offs, pay cuts, reduced hours, or redundancy and restructuring; any one of which has the potential to generate costly and lengthy litigation.

This Email Service is designed to keep subscribers apprised of important developments that will help them keep on the right side of the ever increasingly complex laws regulating the workplace. The emails are written by the top law firms in Ireland, with leading specialists on employment law.

Each email is clearly and concisely written and usually accompanied by links to supplementary material on the internet – ideal for the busy professional advising on employment issues.

Hundreds of organisations, small and large, now benefit from this service.

With prices starting from the equivalent of €0.96 per week for a corporate subscription, this service remains the best way of keeping on top of legal developments which, if missed, could cost your organisation many thousands of Euros.

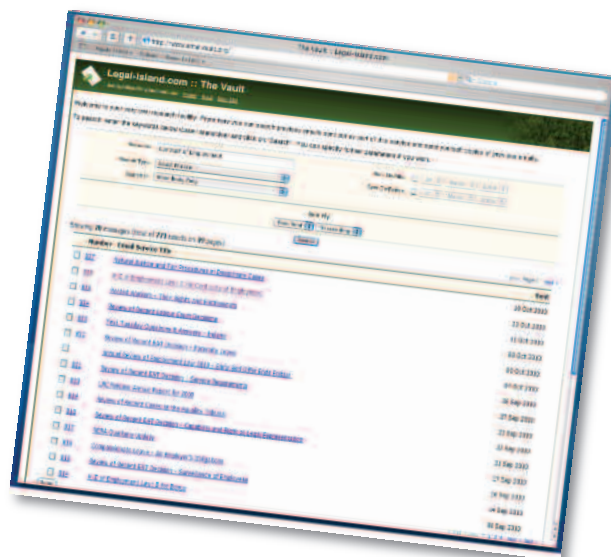

Email Vault

All emails sent out since 2003 as part of the service may be accessed and searched online by subscribers: a fantastic research tool!

Benefits of the Email Service

– keep up-to-date with:

- Content written by nine top law firms in Ireland.
- Frequent contemporary reviews of EAT, Labour Court and Equality Tribunal cases.
- Online access to a searchable archive going back to 2003.
- Template documents and precedent wording for you to use.
- Short summaries of new key employment legislation.
- Employment law queries answered by a top law firm.
- Initial free employment law legal advice line.
- Details and clarification of the significant changes to Workplace Relations structures and procedures.

Short, clear and concise emails summarising important developments – an indispensable service.
